

Biography: Seth Kramer
Water Supply Division
Texas Commission on Environmental Quality

Current Position

Seth Kramer is a Program Coordinator in Texas Commission on Environmental Quality's Water Supply Division. He is currently overseeing the development and implementation of the Voluntary Lead Testing in School and Child Care Program Drinking Water grant program.

Prior Experience and Education

Previously, he worked in Lead and Copper Rule compliance for Public Water Systems. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Biology and an Advanced Technical Certification in Environmental Technology.

Contact Information

Telephone: (512) 239-6167

E-mail: seth.kramer@tceq.texas.gov