

PHYSICAL, OPERATIONAL, & CYBER SECURITY ISSUES IN CRUISE

IBA Annual Conference 2016

Kim Hall,
Cruise Lines International Association
Director for Technical & Regulatory Affairs –
Operational & Security

Cruise Lines International Association

- Unified voice of the global cruise community
- Represents, advocates, and promotes the common interests of the industry to external stakeholders
- Global organization with 15 offices worldwide
- 62 Cruise line members worldwide – 90% of global cruise capacity
- 50,000 Travel agent members
- 275 Executive partners

Technical & Regulatory Affairs

- Advocates for industry legal, legislative, and technical positions
- Actively monitors and participates in development of shipping policies and regulations at the international, regional, and national level
- Actively involved in safety of passengers & crew and protecting the marine environment

Security Portfolio: Key Topics

- Physical Security
  - Ports and ISPS Level Changes
  - Security Breaches
- Operational Security
  - Alignment Across Borders
  - Man Overboard (MOB) Detection Technology
- Cyber Assurance and Security
  - Industry-led Guidelines
  - IMO Guidelines

Related Committee and Working Groups

- CLIA Committee on Maritime Security Matters
- CLIA Committee on Maritime Safety Matters
- Facilitation, Customs, and Immigration Working Group
- Operations Working Group
- Cyber Assurance/Security Working Group

THANK YOU!

