

The State of Fairs in a COVID-19 Climate – Live Q&A Webinar – 5.5.2020

Chat Transcript

00:33:48 Rachel Rawls: indiana

00:33:49 Katie Frew: Katie Frew - Indiana

00:33:49 Robert Kelly: Goshen, Indiana

00:33:53 Sharon Blaes: Cherryvale, Kansas

00:33:55 Elisabeth Smith:Indiana

00:33:58 Marc Baysek: NC

00:34:31 NAA Education - Kristina: https://www.farmanddairy.com/news/2020-fairs-remain-in-limbo/610496.html?fbclid=IwAR3DSNtvS161raeezaZWrh2_oBzRBrCatDUJ6uk6qx1NAU4ow4iSmOrlaJc

00:40:43 Julie Wilson: Indiana

00:41:06 Kimberly Frazier: Peru IN

00:41:18 Cathy Boerste: Indiana

00:41:40 Erin Williams: Illinois

00:43:30 Buddy Barton: Is this zoom cast only about livestock?

00:44:05 Buddy Barton: Sorry, Just noticed the topic page

00:44:48 Erin Shipp: @Buddy Barton all methods of auction associated with local fairs

00:54:00 Erin Shipp: Susan, please enter your thoughts into the Q&A box, thanks!

00:57:28 Erin Shipp: If you have any livestock-specific auction software suggestions, please drop them here in the chat

01:00:35 Linda Gantz: To those who are looking at dividing $ evenly between kids, are you giving any consideration to species, age of kids (HS Seniors especially), etc. as look at amounts?

01:10:38 JANICE WILLIAMS: Some locally popular freebie or give away just for registering online for the online auction to get them to visit the website and save the date

01:19:44 Kathy Baber: TikTok, Instagram, SnapChat will be great platforms for the kids to promote their products.

01:20:19 Susan Johnson: If you do not have a paid Zoom account a free account will give you a 40 minute call

01:22:25 JANICE WILLIAMS: When building the online "lot" screen the buyer will see try to have key info and buy or add on button on the FIRST screen. Don't require scrolling because that loses interest.

01:32:30 Susan Johnson: Are there any Non-Auctioneers on here -- representing 4H

01:32:53 Susan Johnson: Would love to hear from them

01:35:26 JANICE WILLIAMS: Yes! 4-H Club Manager and Buyers group leader