

Catholic International University Partnership

Catholic International University's School Continuing Education and Lifelong Learning partners with the Secretariat for Evangelization and Faith Formation of the Diocese of Brooklyn to offer subsidized online independent study courses, seminars and certificates for catechists, Catholic School teachers, parents, young adults and other interested adults in the Catholic faith community (in English and Spanish).

The online option gives each person in the Brooklyn Diocese the opportunity to study the Catholic Faith alone or with a group in a convenient, flexible, and adult-friendly format.

By using the Brooklyn access code, BROOKLYNMEM17, all members of the diocese are able participate in short, non-credit, online seminars and courses at no cost to you.

The Secretariat for Evangelization and Catechesis of the Diocese of Brooklyn offers online and in-person opportunities for formation and educational opportunities that lead to Missionary Discipleship, including initial and ongoing training for catechists and Catholic School Teachers. Learn more about the various components of this training here.

Initial Faith Formation Component

For those who are new to catechetical programs in the Diocese of Brooklyn, have no previous catechetical experience.

Ongoing Faith Formation Component

For catechists that have received the Initial Faith Formation

Enrichment Faith Formation Component

For catechists who have received the Ongoing Faith Formation Certificate of Completion, Catholic International offers a variety of seminars or courses, depending on their position, ministry, area of need, etc. Ten hours of catechist faith formation (1 CEU) are required each year.

Holy Spirit Institute for Service and Leadership

Catholic International partners with the Diocese of Brooklyn Holy Spirit Institute for Service and Leadership in the formation and education in both Spanish and English to select men and women called to serve as missionary disciples. For More Information, contact:
