All other forms contained in this deskbook are samples and should be used at the discretion of each individual attorney. Because each family law claim is factually intensive and specific, the forms for complaints and orders set out a framework. Discovery documents must necessarily be tailored to each case.]
