

Test Questions for Stories that Hurt and Stories that Heal

1. Each of the following describes an affair except
2. According to the statistics quoted in the webinar, which of the following is true?
3. Dr. Perry warns therapists that the early stages of therapy are dominated by
4. In addition to avoiding anger, intimacy and avoidance, this is another one of Emily Brown's typologies of affairs discussed in the webinar
5. Dr. Perry researched the various meanings that clients attach to an affair. When one partner is torn between hope and hurt after an affair, this is referred to as
6. According to Dr. Perry, one of the biggest mistakes therapists make while working with couples after an affair is
7. Couples who can rebuild after an affair are able to