

Biography: Shelley Anderson

Field Operations
Texas Commission on Environmental Quality

Current Position

Shelley is a Stormwater Investigator for the Water Section in the Tyler Region of the Office of Compliance and Enforcement.

Prior Experience and Education

Shelley received a Bachelor of Science in Environmental Biology in 2004 from Texas A&M University in Corpus Christi. In 2005, she joined the Air Permits Division in the Office of Air of the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality as a Permit Writer. Shelley later transferred in 2010 to the Remediation Division in the Office of Waste as a Project Manager. Shelley joined the Tyler Region in the Office of Compliance & Enforcement in 2014 as an Environmental Investigator. In her current position, Shelley conducts field investigations at construction sites and various industrial facilities to determine compliance with stormwater regulations.

Contact Information

Telephone: (903) 535-5148

E-mail: Shelley.Anderson@tceq.texas.gov