

Biography: Elizabeth Reyes
Region 6
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)

Current Position

EPA Region 6 Brownfields Project Officer

Prior Experience and Education

Elizabeth Reyes is EPA Region 6's Coordinator for the Brownfields State and Tribal Response Program. Before joining the Brownfields Program, she started as an intern in the Office of Environmental Justice and Tribal Affairs at EPA; a year later, she joined the Wetlands Section in the Water Division; four years later, she joined the Pesticides Program. She has been with EPA for over 22 years.

Education: Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science emphasis in Biology from Texas A&M University Corpus Christi (2001); Master of Public Administration from the University of Texas Arlington (2010).

Contact Information

Telephone: (214) 665-3163

E-mail: reyes.elizabeth@epa.gov