

Biography: Phil Gurley

The University of Texas School of Public Affairs, Graduate Research
Assistant

Current Position

The University of Texas School of Public Affairs graduate research assistant and Border Affairs intern.

Prior Experience and Education

A graduating master's of global policy student at the LBJ School of Public Affairs at the University of Texas, Phil is studying environmentally conscious development and binational relations between Texas and Mexico. Last summer, Phil worked for the State Government of Nuevo León expanding recycling access to community centers throughout Monterrey.

Prior to graduate school, Phil worked in the non-profit space, improving markets for small farmers and educating communities about sustainable farming. Phil has spent time both domestically and abroad improving food systems and assisting underserved communities.

Phil has received his B.A. in International Studies and Spanish from Elon University, and a Certificate in Advanced International Affairs from the Bush School at Texas A&M University.

Contact Information

Telephone: (301) 642-6649

E-mail: philipgurley1@gmail.com