

Avalara Business Licenses

End-to-End Solutions

There's no getting around the fact that business license compliance is a difficult balancing act between spending valuable time on detailed paperwork on one hand and possibly failing to meet the stringent requirements of licensing authorities on the other. That's why Avalara has end-to-end solutions to help businesses of all sizes meet their compliance challenges before things come crashing down.

Avalara License Management

If you manage hundreds or many thousands of licenses, this one software solution will help you streamline your business license workflow.

Avalara Sales Tax Registration

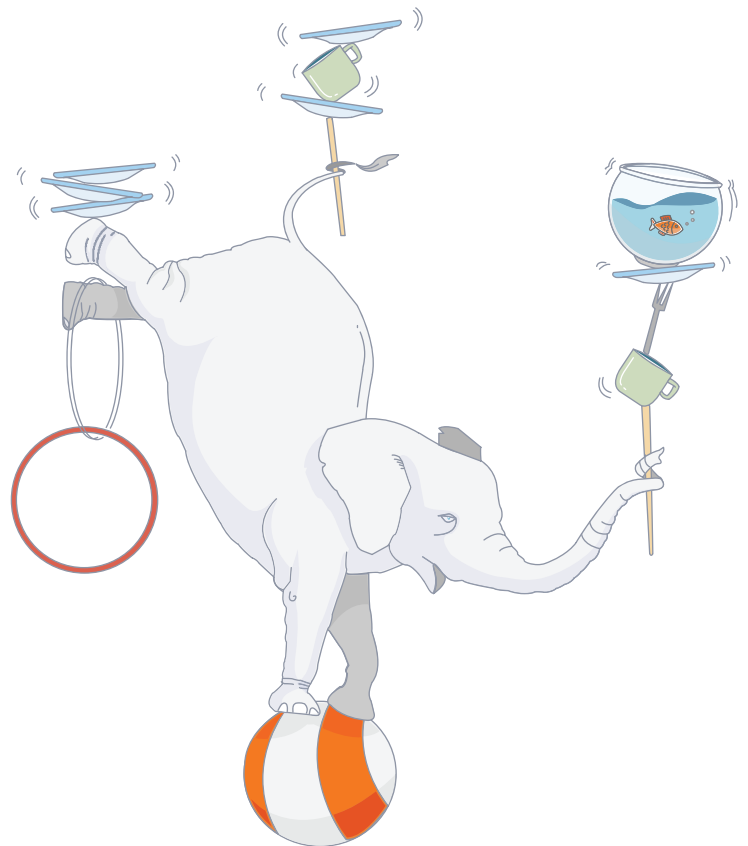

Answer some questions about your business and Avalara can file on your behalf for sales tax registrations with most tax authorities. All you need to do is wait for your registration certificate.

Avalara License Guidance

When you sign up for Avalara License Guidance, a custom report that contains applications and forms to get your new or expanding business properly licensed is just one download away.

Avalara License Preparation

Don't spend your time poring over confusing rules and the myriad forms. Skip the paperwork and let us prepare your registrations and non-regulated business license applications on your behalf.

Learn more at www.avalara.com