

Biography: Dr. Alfredo Granados-Olivas

School of Agriculture “Hermanos Escobar” in Ciudad Juárez, Dean
Universidad Autónoma de Ciudad Juárez, Professor

Current Position

Dr. Alfredo Granados-Olivas is currently the dean of the School of Agriculture “Hermanos Escobar”, an agriculture school located in Ciudad Juarez, Chihuahua., that was founded in 1906. Alfredo has also been a professor at the Universidad Autónoma de Ciudad Juarez, at the Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering since 1987. He is responsible for promoting a successful career in agriculture engineering under a multimodal education system (linking students-academic programs-agribusinesses-government)

Prior Experience and Education

He graduated from NMSU in 2000. Presently, he is a member of the National System of Researchers in Mexico (SNI-Level 1). Dr. Granados was recently awarded by the National Association of Schools and Faculties of Engineering of Mexico (ANFEI) for distinguishing as one of the academics that are being an actor in training engineers with academic excellence. His professional interested is on the sustainability of water resources on arid ecosystems to promote equity and sustainable development on rural communities of Mexico. His areas of expertise include hydrogeology, interaction of surface water and groundwater, aquifer recharge, and GIS.

Contact Information

Telephone: (656) 300-1438

E-mail: agranados@uacj.mx