Welcome to The Police Credit Union Portal

We appreciate you taking the time to visit our portal during the CPCA Annual Training Symposium and the opportunity to consider a partnership with The Police Credit Union of California. Our financial institution founded by and for law enforcement and their families brings expertise, financial solutions, specialized products and services for our members.

We understand the uniqueness of our membership and the challenges that you face. As a credit union exclusively serving law enforcement and their families throughout all of California, our core purpose is to provide financial solutions that take care of our own. We recognize the busy lives of our law enforcement members and together our partnership will make a difference in the lives of the employees and their families.

To learn more about partnership opportunities and to enter for a chance to win a $100 Amazon gift card, simply click on the link below or scan the code with your phone to fill out a short inquiry form. Winner will be selected on September 25, 2020.

Thank you again for stopping by The Police Credit Union portal. It would be a privilege to be added as a trusted financial resource for your employees, offering products and services unique to law enforcement. We look forward to speaking with you again.
