Laser Assault and Threat Awareness for Public Safety

Laser threats and assaults are a growing concern for public safety personnel. 'Counter-optical lasers,' often commercial off-the-shelf (COTS) laser pointers can and have been directed against law enforcement and emergency responders to disrupt operations. See the AMU's Visor card, developed by Lt Col (ret) Matt Begert, Dr. Robert J. Bunker and Dr. John P. Sullivan at Laser Assault Awareness

Building the Future of Modern Policing

As society changes, so too must policing. There is an urgency to renew and rebuild law enforcement for officers and communities. But true modernization requires technologies that deliver data insights to manage change, strengthen officer well-being and support new operational concepts, enabling the interventions and relationships that keep society safe.
