Self-Study Syllabus

Week 1: Introduction and Practical Advice for New Campus Counsel

- Welcome and brief overview of NACUA resources
- Brief overview of legal issues unique to higher education
- Practical advice on transitioning to the practice of higher education law

Suggested Reading:

- 1. Larry White, "Larry White's 20 Aphorisms for New College & University Lawyers" (revised May 2018)(p. 3 of linked .pdf).
- Derek Langhauser, "Twenty-One Lessons Learned Over Twenty-One Years" (Lawyers New to Higher Education Workshop 2014) (pps. 4-7 of linked .pdf).

Welcome to NACUA: Staff and Resources

- Meet the NACUA Staff
- Learn about NACUA Member Benefits and Resources
- Learn staff members' favorite timesaving tips and tricks for accessing resources on NACUA's website

Suggested Reading: NACUA, "NACUA's Top 10 Timesaving Tips to Assist you with Daily Practice" (2018)(p.2 of linked .pdf).

Week 2: Meet the Faculty

- Faculty tenure
- Faculty performance management and discipline
- Academic Freedom/ First Amendment: Garcetti v. Ceballos
- Practical issues/concerns

Suggested Reading: Shelley Sanders Kehl and Barbara A. Lee, "Faculty Concerns: Academic Tenure" (2020).

Week 3: Fun with FERPA

- An overview of the FERPA framework and its key definitions
- The principal disclosure exceptions
- The often forgotten "inspect and review" and "seek amendment" rights
- Saving the best for last: FERPA's enforcement mechanism

Suggested Reading: Melissa J. Holloway and Stephen J. McDonald, "The Fundamentals of Fundamental FERPA" (Sept. 15, 2020).

Week 4: Application of Federal Antidiscrimination Law to Colleges and Universities

- Racial discrimination and harassment (Title VI)
- Free speech, diversity, and inclusion
- Sex discrimination and transgender legal issues (Title IX)
- Religious freedom
- Disability discrimination

Suggested Reading: Adaptation of Original Manuscript by Beverly Ledbetter and William Thro, "Application of Federal Antidiscrimination Law to Colleges & Universities" (updated Fall 2020).

Week 5: College Athletics

- NCAA structure and enforcement
- Athletics contracts
- Title IX and intercollegiate athletics
- Trending topics

Suggested Reading:

- 1. Bharath Parthasarathy, "Contract Issues in College Athletics" (Lawyers New to Higher Education Online Course 2020)(pgs. 4-25 of .pdf).
- 2. Janet Judge, "NCAA Guidelines: Sports Medicine, a General Overview" (Lawyers New to Higher Education Workshop 2019)(pgs. 26-29 of .pdf).
- 3. Bill Thro, "The Title IX Implications of Eliminating an Intercollegiate Sports Team" (NACUANOTE , June 22, 2010)(pgs. 30-38 of .pdf).
- Table of Contents with Additional Resources (compiled Fall 2020) (pps. 2-3 of .pdf)(resources on concussion litigation, division manuals, NCAA guidance, and more).

Week 6: Introduction to Sexual Misconduct Issues: Title IX, Title VII, and the Courts

- Title IX Regulations: Status and Implications for Practice
- The Intersection of the Clery Regulations, VAWA, Title IX, and Title VII
- Title IX in the Courts: Deliberate Indifference, Erroneous Outcome, and Selective Enforcement
- Practical advice for campus counsel in adopting, revising, and administering sexual misconduct policies on campus

Suggested Reading:

- 1. Title IX Final Regulation (Effective Aug. 14, 2020)(regulations only at pps. 2008-2033, not preamble).
- 2. NACUA, Title IX Regulations Grid with Preamble (May 17, 2020).

Week 7: Wheels Up! - Navigating University International Programs

- Review frameworks for addressing international initiatives
- Discuss select U.S. and foreign law compliance issues, while highlighting recent trends and hot topics – e.g., crisis response plans related to worldwide health and safety concerns, foreign influence and disclosure requirements, student recruitment, immigration and visas, online programs and remote learning.
- Share unique contract terms, tips, and strategies for negotiating crossborder contracts

Suggested Reading:

It is suggested that you read a sampling of these resources, at your discretion:

- 1. Pietrina Scaraglino and Marta Thompson, "Documenting the Deal: Critical Contract Terms for Agreements with Non-U.S. Parties" (NACUANOTE, March 9, 2020).
- William Ferreira, William P. Nicholson, Saundra Holmes, and Peter F. May, "Building Partnerships and Developing Agreements with Foreign Institutions" (NACUA Annual Conference 2019).
- Robert F. Roach, Neson G. Dong, Donald Fischer, and Katherine A. Rojo del Busto, "Global Compliance in Uncertain Times: Keeping Up with Foreign Export Controls, Economic Sanctions, and the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act" (NACUA Annual Conference 2019).
- 4. William Ferreira, Chris Bauer and Elizabeth Whiston, "Domestic and International Partnerships to Expand Student Offerings" (NACUA Annual Conference 2018).
- 5. Lisa Rae and Julie Penry, "International Contracts" (NACUA Annual Conference 2018).
- Xinning Shirley Liu, "We Have a Program Where?! Compliance Considerations for Global Partnerships" (NACUA Compliance Workshop 2017).
- 7. William Ferreira, John Gloster, and Lisa Rae, "The Art and Romance of Deploying and Employees Abroad" (NACUA Annual Conference 2017).
- 8. Mike Pfahl, "Boots Off the Ground: Opening an Office in a Foreign Country" (NACUANOTES, Aug. 1, 2012).

Week 8: Contract Administration

- Unique issues related to contract administration on college and university campuses
- The role of counsel in contract administration
- Who is entering into contracts at your university? Signature authority and policies related to contract administration
- Key contractual provisions
- Practical take-aways related to contract review

Suggested Reading: Chris Melcher, "Contract Administration" (Oct. 8, 2020).

Week 9: An Introduction to Student Affairs and Student Disciplinary Issues: Preventing and Litigating Legal Challenges to the Discipline and Grading of Students

- Key foundational concepts and legal obligations: due process and contractual obligations, public versus private colleges and universities
- Academic versus conduct problems, graduate and professional programs, disability and Title IX cases
- Litigation lessons for policy development and practice
- The many changing dynamics on campus and student life trends what these mean for campus lawyers

Suggested Reading: Madelyn F. Wessel, "An Introduction to Student Affairs and Student Disciplinary Issues: Preventing and Litigating legal Challenges to the Discipline and Grading of Students" (Oct. 20, 2020)

Week 10: Research Compliance, Intellectual Property, and Technology Transfer

- Federally sponsored university research: the regulatory regime
- Compliance: common financial, administrative, and scientific/bioethics compliance issues in research
- Intellectual property: ownership and use of employee, student and third party IP
- Tech transfer: considerations for innovation and commercialization

Suggested Reading:

- Ann Adams, Mary Jo Dively, and Emily Schriver, "Research Compliance, Intellectual Property, and Technology Transfer" (Updated Oct. 13, 2020)(pps. 2-19 of the .pdf).
- 2. Elizabeth Brooks, "Fundamentals of Intellectual Property and Technology Transfer in Higher Education" (2019)(pps. 20 – 30 of the .pdf).
- 3. William Ferreira and Mary Schmiedel, "New OMB Uniform Guidance: What Counsel Needs to Know" (2019)(pps. 31-47 of the .pdf).

Week 11: An Introduction to Higher Education Counsel's Office: Ethical Issues

- General principles of ethics for college and university attorneys
  - Representing an institutional client ethical issues and practical strategies
  - Attorney-client privilege elements, exceptions, and waivers
  - Special challenges taking on non-legal roles

Suggested Reading: Christopher Holmes and Dickens "Deke" Mathieu, "An Introduction to Higher Education Counsel's Office: Ethical Issues" (LNTHE Workshop 2020).